

Post Test

Self-Study Module: Viruses, Bacteria & Yeast – Oh My!...

1. _____ transmission of infectious agents from mother to fetus or newborn child.
 - a. Direct
 - b. Vertical
 - c. Horizontal
2. True or False? Neutrophils are produced in the bone marrow.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. In pregnancy, the only effective therapy for syphilis is _____.
 - a. Amoxicillin
 - b. Gentamycin
 - c. Penicillin
4. True or False? Hepatomegaly is the most common physical finding with congenital syphilis.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. True or False? Avoiding maternal CMV infection is the only effective prevention for congenital CMV infection.
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. True or False? Congenital Cytomegalovirus is the most common congenital viral infection.
 - a. True
 - b. False
7. Ideally, antibiotics for GBS treatment should be administered at least ____ hours before delivery.
 - a. 2
 - b. 8
 - c. 4
8. True or False? Group B Streptococcus is the most common cause of neonatal early onset sepsis.
 - a. True
 - b. False
9. True or False? Pregnant women with suspected or confirmed influenza should not receive antiviral treatment.
 - a. True
 - b. False
10. True or False? Adequate intrapartum antibiotic prophylaxis will protect infants from late onset group B strep?
 - a. True
 - b. False